THE N. C. B. R. A. SOCIETY. THE Report of the Council of the North China Branch of the Royal Asiatio Society for 1868 affords gratifying evidence that its objects are gaining in public interest. Unpretending its efforts. they have scarcely met with general plasters ever being recognition. Yet no inconsiderable work necessary form. has been done during the past year. trifle, but, as huma venience is made un Aid has been given to the expedition worth while to mal nominated to explore and report upon the course of the Yellow River, which has resulted in the interesting paper by MrN. Elias, published in the transactions. The foundation of the most valuable Public Library in the East has been laid by the judicious purchase of Mr Wylie's unique collection of works upon China and the far East. And a commencement has been made towards republishing the valuable papers of the Chinese Repository, Mr . Forbes, having already completed a preliminary classification of its papers, and some idea having been arrived at as to the probable bulk (but we regret to say not as to the cost) of the reprint. It is furthermore gratafying to find that a piece of reflects most creditably upon the literary reputation of the Model Settlement. The society at present consists of I life, 14 honorary, and 32 corresponding, members, as well as 57 resident and 56 160 persons, amongst the names of which are to be found those of the most distinguished Chinese scholars, and writers upon Chinese matters, now resident in the East. It is to be hoped, however, ROMAN CATHOLIC REFORMATORY, West that with its increasing evidence of usefulness, not merely to the literary man merchant, the circle of membership will increase. A glance at the list of contents of last year's "Transactions." is sufficient to show the general scope of the society. Out of ten papers five are geographical, geological and paleontological. We have In fact each paper might suggest matter for an independent article. But taken as a whole the volume is an appreciable addition to our memorands upon Chinese matters. Reserving the pleasure of a more detailed notice, we need scarcely say that we heartily wish the society success in its more extended labours, and trust that additional support will be forthcoming.

NIGHT PASSES. AMONGST the social matters which occasionally exercise the minds of Her Majesty's lieges in Hongkong is that of passes to servants; and as the preciso regulations on this subject seem to take rank amongst "things not generally known " a few words of explanation may be useful. There is a prevailing idea that if a householder who has neglected to obtain printed police passes for his servants, desires to send one of them on an errand after nightfall, it is only necessary to write a request to "pass the bearer" on a sheet of notepaper, to ensure his being unmolested by the vigilant police. Some recent cases of this nature having attracted our attention, we made enquiries, and learn upon authority that this "popular view" of the regulations

The Ordinances at present in force upon the subject are Number 11 of 1857 and Number 9 of 1867, § IX, the latter extending the regulations made by the former Ordinance to women. It is therein distinctly laid down that all passes must be obtained from the Superintendent of Police in a printed form, and that any Chinese found without one will, between 29.970 certain hours, be liable to arrest. Public 29.008 opinion has endorsed the wisdom of the regulation, but pub that it be "passes signed by uselest." C. L. Davies v. Un Aling, $146, for services rendered as a public accountant. - Mr Hazeland was for the plaintiff, and Mr Sharp was for the defendant.

The bill of particulars was made up as follows: For attending defendant, receiving instructions, drawing a tender for the Eastern Slaughter-House, and attending the execution of the same, $25; the same service regarding the Western Slaughter-House, $25; attending defendant, drawing an undertaking for the securities to enter into a bond, and attending execution of the same, (1) for the Eastern, and (2) for the Western, together $50; for writing a letter to the Hon. Colonial Secretary overing the said tenders, $25 | special messenger to Government House, with the above, $1; two occasions when inquired of the Registrar General whether or not the tenders had been accepted, $10 for each occasion (i.e., $20 for the two); in all by about a couple of lengths; Elfin being a $146.

Mr Hazeland explained that this case was distinct from the previous case in which a nonsuit had been given, relative to a promissory note for $200. Captain Harvey (who had paid a portion of the claim in Court) said that he had no funds, and he did not wish the men to leave till the articles were completed. His Honor referred the matter to the Harbor Master, who knew much more about sailors than he did.

The case, however, came back, as th Captain had left the Harbor Master's office It was fixed for Thursday next.

H. R. H. PRINCE ALFRED.

We have refrained from copying many of the paragraphs which have appeared about our "Sailor Prince," and his visit to the British Colonies of the South but there is so much of suggestion in the subjoined extract from the Hobart Town Mercury that we copy it as a hint to Royal Highness as to what his demeanour should be in India, where "impatience and rudeness" will be less toler able than in New Zealand. EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS.

(From the "Straits Times," July 27, 1868. Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkong publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the know. ledge of our readers. We allude to Notes Li- and Queries on China and Japan, published monthly by Mr Saint, the proprietor of the China Mait newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in size and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally mine containing very curious and useful information regarding the language, literature, history, manners and custohis of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour. The publication is altogether a very interesting one; and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support (From the "Friend of India," June 4, 11868. We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the numbers for the current year of "Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East Its interest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and suspend or dismiss, subject to an appeal to generally to all who are interested in oriental antiquities. It deserves to be better known in India. (From the "London Examiner," May 16, 1868.

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports China and Japan "] is intended as a guide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally, It contains an account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with Peking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macso.
